Green Street Studios Summer Schedule 2011

MODERN DANCE

Introduction to Modern NEW! SARAH MAE GIBBONS

Intro to modern dance is a class that looks at modern dance through the methods of technique, composition and history. Each class includes warm-up, floor work and across the floor sequences. In this way we will explore weight, suspension, release, strength, flexibility and creativity. Exercises and combinations encourage comfort and understanding of personal movement vocabulary.

No prior experience necessary.
Email: smgibbons.72@gmail.com for more information

Monday 6:30-7:30 4 week session 6/2-6/30 (no 6/16) Session $50, $12 drop-in

Adv. Beginning Modern NEW! NICOLE PIERCE

Nicole Pierce subbing for Jody Weber for the month of June! This class is for adult dancers with some experience and a basic understanding of dance vocabulary. The class explores a full understanding of the spine, expanded vocabulary, alignment, and musicality through full bodied phrases. The class will expand the dancer's qualitative range and investigate nuance and detail for greater depth in performance. Personal feedback, friendly atmosphere!

Monday 7:30-9:00pm 6/6-6/27 5 class session $50, drop-ins $17

Int/Adv. Modern REBECCA RICE

Classes focus on developing technical, theatrical performers and build strong, musical and organic movers. Influences range from Bill Evans/ Limon-based modern, Gerri Houlihan, Laban Effort Shape & various Pilates and Evan's-based floor work. Included will be Modern floor barre, standing center barre, full, contemporary movement & new choreographic ideas. Attention to working with challenging rhythms in order to build strong musicality will be stressed as well as attention to movement that builds virtuosity of technique and creative self-expression. To register or for info email riceflan@gmail.com.

Tuesday 5:45-7:15pm Ongoing no 6/14 5-week session 5/24 $65/ $17 drop-in

Int. Modern Technique NEW! CHERI OPPERMAN

Cheri Opperman subbing for Jody Weber for the summer! Intermediate modern is a challenging class for dancers with experience. The class focuses on a deep understanding of the body and incorporates ideas from Limon, Cunningham and Graham techniques. Dancers will move through a warm-up that builds strength and clarifies alignment followed by extended phrases which are rhythmically and physically challenging. The class also focuses on performance quality, focus and presence. Please call GSS for more information

Wednesday 6:00-7:30 Pre-register $100/ drop-ins $17

Intermediate/Adv. Modern NICOLE PIERCE

This is a fast-moving class for experienced dancers. We will explore technical problems through a mix of classical & idiosyncratic movement vocabularies. Pierce is known for long phrases of challenging, inventive, textural movement, as well as keen musicality and rhythm. While she enjoys pushing technique and mental acuity, she nurtures an atmosphere of levity and acceptance in order to encourage creative interpretation and the development of one's own voice. Warm-up is thorough and relevant to the class work. Live guitar, voice & drums by Jerry Bussiere Pierce and accompanist Jerry Bussiere have worked together for over 15 years and enjoy working in unusual rhythms at many tempos. Never the same class twice! Lots of new material every week.

Thursday 5:45-7:15pm Ongoing $17/drop-ins

Int./Adv. Modern MARCUS SCHULKIND

Using the concepts of contract/release, drop/flow, weightedness, and aerial precision, this class consists of floorwork, center work, a barre, and combinations that use the founding principles of modern dance and evolve them to the present. Live music!

Friday 9:30-11:30am – Ongoing $17.50/drop-in

MOVEMENT TRAINING & IMPROVISATION

Movement Improvisation LIZ RONCKA

This class will provide an opportunity for individuals to discover and develop a wide range of "skills" useful in the practice of improvisation. We will engage in exercises to explore and expand our bodies' movement potential (movement invention). We will review basic concepts of composition and experiment with more advanced approaches to creating compositions in the moment (real-time composition). Special attention will be paid to finding and maintaining a state of heightened awareness and responsiveness to one's self and to the environment. All levels welcome as this class seeks to facilitate discovery for any "level" of movement practitioner. For pre-registration or other questions, please email Liz at lizroncka@me.com
